IORS

MISS CORNWELL

We, as individuals and as a class, are indebted to Miss Cornwell for our success in high school. She has been our constant guide and leader in all our undertakings and has willingly given us all of the knowledge, time, and assistance that she possibly could. Even through most trying circumstances she has been invincible, always encouraging us to toil on when things seemed hopeless. Now that we are about to leave, we realize the value of her leadership and instruction, and we give to her our highest esteem and measureless thanks.

MR. BROWNING

Realizing what a difficult task he has had, our hats are off to Mr. Browning in appreciation of the splendid assistance he has given us this year. There are few people who, elected as sponsor for only the Senior year, could step into the harness and take up the reins as well as he. He has always been willing to help us and give us advice on any question we presented to him. He has been a good friend to us all and has endeared himself to the Seniors as a group and individually.

Allegretto
Oh Hand-ley High We bid thee A-dieu And dear Old Pals And Class-mates, so
Let us Wave our Banner White And Blue As Hand in Hand we Leave thy Gates, So
On-ward thru the years our Mem'ries ev-er Live of Hap-py mom-ents passed those School Days, School Days the days that went so fast Oh,
Yet it breaks our Hearts To bid A-dieu Our Love for thee Shall ne-ver die, So
Come My Friends Lets Sing A-New And Pledge our hearts To Hand-ley High, Oh Hand-ley High

CLASS HISTORY

Too great perhaps, for ordinary realization, is the fact that the class of Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-Seven has reached the goal for which it set out in Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-Four. In the passing of events along the path of graduation, there is so much to hold the attention of the average student that to forget the flight of time is but natural, and to believe that school day friendships can last forever, inevitable. Reality in this case is hard to face, and a step across the threshold of Handley's timeworn edifice of learning for the last time is accompanied with a pang of regret.

As we entered the John Kerr School in the fall of Nineteen Hunded and Twenty-Four, little did we realize the ties of friendship that were then being formed were to endure for so many years to come. Little did we realize, at the time, that the work we accomplished there was to be the basic foundation for our future education. Four years later we made our entrance into a new place of study and learning, the Handley High School. The Handley School to us was like a new world, and we had taken another great stride toward our goal. After the passing of three years, we went onward into Junior High School. This we did with much of our self-esteem later dampened to a large extent by our first examinations.

The following three years of our educational life were as members of the Senior High School, and we illustriously executed the privileges granted such members. As Sophomores, we attended the dances given by the Juniors and Seniors at which time we felt on an equal basis with our upper classmen. Our last duty as Sophomores was to furnish inflammable material for the Senior Bon-fire. This we did in a most cooperative manner. As Juniors, we gave our own dances and nobly presented a class play entitled, "The Womanless Wedding". Our last obligation as Juniors was to serve as escorts to the Seniors at their class day exercises as well as at their Bon-fire. Thus, our next to last year in Handley was drawn to a close.

Clothed with the dignity of Seniors, we entered upon the last mile of the journey to graduation. It was with some hesitancy, for every student began to realize that the ties of friendship were soon to be broken. It is needless to dwell upon the activties in which we participated. They were performed with such interest and zeal as to reflect credit on the class who engaged in them. With memories that will be cherished for years to come and with knowledge that Handley's name is dear to every student of '37 is this record ended. May all who are left behind profit by the success and good fellowship of the class of '37. For many education's sun has set, but for all there is the dawn of tomorrow.

Faithfully submitted,

JOE C. RITTER, Historian

CLASS WILL

We, the class of nineteen hundred and thirty-seven, being of sound minds do hereby declare this our last will and testament hereby revoking all other wills, bequests, and devices by us made. We do bequeath to the understated to be administered by the executors.

The said executors shall be Miss Laughton, Mrs. Solenberger, and Mr. Quarles. These executors shall give bond that they will earnestly endeavor to carry out faithfully all bequests made by this or any future Senior Class.

1. To Miss Cornwell and Mr. Browning, we leave our deepest gratitude and undying respect for their untiring efforts and priceless advice which helped to make our high school days happy ones.
2. To Mrs. Solenberger and Mrs. Peery, we leave the right to advise all future Executive Councils.
3. To the lunchroom, we leave the right to feed the student body entirely on left-overs as we believe this will save much time and expense.
4. To Mr. Stickel, we bequeath a large gavel to be used in place of a pencil to bring his classes to attention.
5. To Miss Boyd, we leave the privilege of organizing, sponsoring, and coaching a girl's football team.
6. To the entire student body we bequeath the duty of keeping the grounds and halls of Handley School free from all dirt or rubbish.
7. To all future Dignified Senior Girls the great task of taking the conceit out of Mr. Browning's "Angels".
8. To Mr. Hale and all of his students of Chemistry, we leave the undisputed right of filling the halls with disagreeable odors as we believe any discomfort should be borne in the furtherance of Science.
9. To all future Seniors, we leave the right to turn all class meetings into free-for-all fights.
10. The following personal bequests are left:
    1. To Kenneth Heinie, we leave Mary Scully's position as president of the Senior Class.
    2. To "Peggy" McIntyre, we leave Dorothy Larrick's wit.
    3. To Anne Oakes we leave John Gano's efficiency.
    4. To all future presidents of the Executive Council we leace Joe Ritter's power of oratory.
    5. To Anne Yost we leave Rachel Jennings' "Gift of Gab."

Feeling our day near at hand we, the class of nineteen hundred and thirty-seven, do hereby set our hand and seal this 9th day of June, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and thirty-seven.

Signed: SENIOR CLASS

TESTATRIX, Ella Rudolph

CLASS POEM

I looked toward the glowing west
As Vesper lay the day to rest;
All was brilliance gleaming there;
No sign of sadness or despair.

I thought just so shall you and I
Both lay our high school memories by,
And beam on the world so new, so great;
Smile on and strive to conquer fate.

Soon, all was dark with clouds of black
Striving to keep the moonlight back;
But it ignored such things as these.
Ere long it shone on fields and trees.

If we but only strive and fight,
Ignore the gloom though black as night,
If we remember what we're taught,
'Twill ne'er be said in vain we've fought.

Before the world our fame shall rise
As brilliant as the evening skies,
If we but keep the good God nigh
As we've been taught at Handley High!

HANDLEY ORCHESTRA

The Handley orchestra is made up of talented musicians of the school who are always ready to play when called upon. This year their performance at the Rouss Fire Company banquet was greatly enjoyed. THE HANDLEY BAND

Our school probably receives more publicity and renown from our Band than from any other extra-curricula activity in the school. Its most excellent performances during the Apple Blossom Festival have gained for its members only the highest praise. Many trophies have been awarded to them for their superior playing in various contests and parades. Under the capable leadership of Mr. McIlwee, we have every reason to be proud of this organization.

THE JUNIOR EVENING STAR

Our school paper, "The Junior Evening Star," is published each week in the local newspaper through the courtesy of the Winchester Evening Star and edited by a group of high school girls known as the Booster Club. Editors are selected each month and the girls are assigned different tasks under each editor. The paper endeavors to keep parents and students informed as to school activities and to give a lasting record of day by day happenings.

THE BOOSTER CLUB

The Booster Club has risen in prominence in the last few years until it now stands as one of the most important organizations in our school. It is composed of Junior and Senior girls advised by Mrs. Barr. Its main function is to arouse school spirit by sponsoring both intra-mural and inter-scholastic contests. In addition, the members take charge at various banquets held in the school and give their services to their fellow students and teachers. Another very important function is the editing and publishing of the "Junior Evening Star" in the local newspaper.

FOOTBALL

HANDLEY OCTOBER 2 HARRISONBURG

Handley's football season opened with a smashing victory for the Judges. The Blue Streaks and the Judges seemed to be pretty evenly matched. Miff Clowe scored the first touchdown by intercepting a pass and making a thrilling 80 yard dash to the goal. Although Harrisonburg made several threats, including a touchdown and an extra point, the fine cooperation of the Judges made it possible for the game to end with a score of 13-7 in their favor.

HANDLEY OCTOBER 9 LURAY

Remembering the defeat of last year, the Judges entered into the second game of the season with a determination to win. Handley lost little time in making the most of its opportunities. When the Luray line began to stiffen, Red Baker's superb kicking helped the Judges to weaken it. Handley came out of the game, "banners high" with a score of 26-0.

HANDLEY OCTOBER 16 WASHINGTON & LEE

In pouring rain and on a muddy field, the Judges and the Generals battled to a scoreless tie. Although from time to time players on both teams gained on straight football, the wet ground made footing so precarious that it was impossible for either to develop enough power to pierce the opposing line.

HANDLEY OCTOBER 24 ALLEGANY

The Handley Judges met Allegany High in the Handley stadium where they battled for a C. V. A. L. victory. In the first few minutes of the game Allegany scored a touchdown and from then on seemed to take an overhand lead. However, after a series of line bucks, Grove took the ball over for a touchdown, the only score made by the Judges. Handley struggled valiantly, but Allegany came out on top—24-6.

HANDLEY OCTOBER 30 R. M. A.

A spirited fight between Handley and Randolph-Macon began by the chalking up of a goal by the Yellow Jackets. Challenged by that touchdown, the Judges scored two hard-earned touchdowns and an extra point by some fine passing and kicking. The game ended with a score of 13-6 in favor of the Judges.

HANDLEY NOVEMBER 7 HAGERSTOWN

After warming up during the first scoreless quarters, the Judges really began to show Hagerstown their real ability. Receiving a pass from Clowe, Grove galloped 30 yards down the field for the first goal. Soon Grove intercepted a Hagerstown pass. This with Red Baker's line plunge ended the game with a score of 12-0 in favor of the Judges.

HANDLEY NOVEMBER 14 WAYNESBORO

Determined to win a place in the C. V. A. L. league, Handley met Waynesboro to battle for decisive victory. Due to injuries received by Baker and Clowe, the lineup of the Judges was slightly weakened. The only score made by Handley was a safety. Finally, despite gallant efforts, the Judges suffered defeat by a score of 14-2.

HANDLEY THANKSGIVING DAY MARTINSBURG

With the usual competitive spirit Martinsburg and Handley met in the Handley stadium to battle for a victory. By a series of end runs and line bucks, Martinburg scored in the first quarter, challenging Handley to a tough game.

In the second quarter, Bill Baker received a forward pass from Clowe and then threw a lateral to Grove who finally scored on the only touchdown for the Judges. After that Martinsburg took the upperhand and Handley never again threatened.

Although Handley was favored on the basis of past contests to win. Martinsburg played inspired football gaining a 20-6 lead.

TRACK

The 1936 Track Team can rightfully be called one of the best ever produced by Handley. In every meet in which it participated, it won a high place. Two members, Red Baker and Quentin Flickinger, became quite prominent by breaking old records and setting new ones in the 440 dash and the pole-vaulting. Quentin Flickinger set a new record of 9 feet 9 inches for pole-vaulting in the 1936 State Meet, and also broke the C. V. A. L. record with a new one of 11 feet 3½ inches. In the 1936 State Meet, Red Baker tied for first place in breaking the record for the 440 dash to make a new one of 52.5 seconds.

In as much as the annual went to press this year before track season, we can't make any prediction as to its success.

The results of the 1936 Track Team are as follows:

Won first place in the R. M. A. Meet	Here
Won first place in the Bunkerhill-Hedgesville Meet	Here
Tied for first place in the Massanutten Meet	There
Won first place in the State Meet	University of Virginia
Won first place in the C. V. A. L. Meet	Here

BOYS' MONOGRAM CLUB

To be a member of the Varsity Monogram Club of the Handley High School a boy must play at least sixteen quarters in the inter-scholastic football or place first, second, or third in the C. V. A. L. track meet, or in the State Track meet. The purpose of this club is to help bring about better school spirit and more cooperation among athletic teams. Its aim is to protest the varsity monogram so that non-deserving students cannot wear it.

"THE SOFT ANSWER"

Quentin Flickinger with proofs of his photograph at the Photographer: "Do I look like this picture, Have I a squint, and do I look like a prize fighter? I ask you is this a good likeness?

Mr. Jolliffe timidly replied, "The answer, sir, is in the negative."

Frances Grove: "What kind of lipstick is that?"

Charlotte Nicodemus: "Irresistable!"

Frances: "Why the sudden change?"

Charlotte: "A change in lipstick now and then is relished by the best of men!"

"MEEK AS MOSES"

Mr. Joyce: "In which of his battles was Alexander the Great killed?"

Robert Newell: "I think it was his last one, sir."

OH THESE COOKS!

Mrs. Hale: "Elizabeth, why have you only ten lines on the subject, milk, while the rest in the class have written pages?"

Elizabeth Campbell: "Well, you see Mrs. Hale, I wrote on condensed milk."

Esther: "Oh no! I mean I've never been sick!"

Mr. Yates: "What is the quickest way to produce saw-dust?"
Charles Beck: "Why—ah—er!"

We have endeavored to acknowledge this excellent co-operation by using the names of these firms in a photograph on our sectional page for advertisements and hope that in this way they can, in part, be paid.

"And how are all the Folks?"

Is there someone in your family about whom you're a bit concerned; someone who is a "little run-down" or "not doing so very well?"

Have you had the Doctor make a careful examination and diagnosis? One call now may save ten or a dozen a little later—to say nothing of preventing unnecessary suffering and possibly serious complications.

The old expression, "Doctors cost money" is never so true as when they aren't called at all.
